

Paul E. Beulé MD FRCSC specializes in joint preserving surgery of the hip as well as arthroplasty of the hip. After completing his training at University of Ottawa, he pursued his fellowship training at University of California, Los Angeles and University of Southern California. Currently, he is Professor of Surgery and Head of the Division of Orthopaedic Surgery at the University of Ottawa. He is a member of the Hip Society, the International Hip Society, and the Academic Network for Conservative Hip Outcome Research (ANCHOR). He is a recipient of the William H. Harris Award twice, the Hip Society Award four times and the Kappa Delta Elizabeth Winston Award. Dr Beulé has published over 220-refereed papers with an h-index of 54, 292 abstracts and has given more than 150 lectures and workshops in several areas in orthopaedic research.